Social Activities
Welcome Events	The Exchange program starts with special Welcome Events offering an overview of the City of Weimar and its surroundings, of the University and faculties, and organizing first contacts with foreign students. This program takes place at the same time as the German intensive course during March (summer semester) or September (winter semester).
University Sports Center	The University Sports Centre offers different sport courses during the semester. https://www.uni-weimar.de/de/universitaet/struktur/zentrale-einrichtungen/universitaetssportzentrum/
Student initiatives	Many students participate in initiatives like »Baushaus Internationals«, »BeBuddy« and »CultureTalk«. There are also activities that inform the university's unique profile with publications like »Port« and »horizonte«. The central venue is »m18«—the Haus der Studierenden - the home of the Student Government, the Faculty Student Council, initiatives, and Café s140. http://www.uni-weimar.de/en/university/profile/student-initiatives/

Accommodation
Student residence	The International Office offers support in finding accommodation. The Studierendenwerk Thüringen (student service) administers approximately 1100 apartments. The university does not have its own accommodation. Normally up to 5 students share living quarters. Students have single rooms, while the kitchen and the bathroom are shared. The overall rent is from about 220€ to 350€ per month including electricity, heating and water. Application online: https://tl1host.eu/SWJ/#home
Private residence	Many students in Weimar live in shared flats and houses rented from private landlords. Depending upon room size and comfort the prices range between 250€ and 450€ per month.

Health Insurance
Health insurance regulations	Health insurance for students from Asia, Australia, Canada, the USA or Eastern Europe (non-EU/EFTA residents) may be arranged in Weimar and costs about 100 € per month. Students from EU countries need to have an European Health Insurance Card issued by a health insurance company of their home country.

Language
Requirements	The faculties of the Bauhaus-Universität Weimar require A1 to B1 knowledge of German, depending on your study program. If your German language competence is very basic, please attach a certificate of your English language competence (as a non-native speaker) in addition. If the study program has been entirely agreed in English, no German certificate is required.
Summer School	Bauhaus Summer School is a project of the Bauhaus-Universität Weimar taking place every year in August. It offers German language courses and academic projects for German and international students and graduates. Further information and the online registration form can be found at: https://www.uni-weimar.de/summerschool/en/home/
German intensive course	The University's Language Centre offers a three-week German intensive course (60 hours) in September and March on condition that a placement test will be taken at the first day of the course. The first German language course is free of charge for exchange students from our partner-universities. Course dates: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Winter semester September • Summer semester March The University's Language Centre offers various foreign language courses and regular semester courses in German as a Foreign Language during the semester as well https://www.uni-weimar.de/en/university/structure/central-university-facilities/language-centre/
