An Overview of Media Technologies and the Internet in Asia

This lecture series will be delivered using the WINDS satellite in real-time mutually from Asian Institute of Technology (Thailand), Multimedia University (Malaysia) and University of Tsukuba (Japan). Attendance of all interested students and faculties are warmly welcomed. Experience the high-quality audiovisual transmitted via a high-speed internet satellite!

Keywords:
   Media processing, Image processing, Computer Graphics, Human Interface, Entertainment Computing, Media politics, Internet, Data Retrieval

Date: November 11 and 12, 2010

Classroom: W216 (AIT, Thailand)

Schedule: (in Thailand Standard Time)

   Thu. Nov. 11
         9:40-10:55
               Tomoo INOUE (Tsukuba) : Advanced Human-Computer Interaction
         11:45-13:00, 13:15-14:30
               Kok Sheik WONG (University Malaya) : Information Hiding
         14:45-16:00
               Hideo JOHO (Tsukuba) : Media Retrieval and User Behaviour
   Fri. Nov. 12
         9:40-10:55
               Jun MITANI (Tsukuba) : CG-origami
         11:45-13:00
               Kanchana KANCHANASUT (AIT) : Development of the Internet in Thailand
         13:15-14:30, 14:45-16:00
               Leslie TKACH-KAWASAKI (Tsukuba) : Media Politics and general discussion

Project Information: http://aep.kokusai.tsukuba.ac.jp/

Project Contact (at Univ. Tsukuba) :   aep@soc-int.tsukuba.ac.jp

©JAXA

By courtesy of Dr. Jun MITANI

This lecture series is supported by