

School of Environment, Resources and Development
Environmental Engineering and Management

Special Lecture

“Energy for Tomorrow’s World”

by

Prof. Samorn Muttamara

President
Thai Resources and Environmental Management
Institute (TREMI)
Bangkok

on

Friday, 10 April 2015 from 10.00-11.00 hrs.

Milton E. Bender Jr. Auditorium
Asian Institute of Technology

Prof. Samorn Muttamara

President
Thai Resources and Environmental Management
Institute (TREMI)

TREMI President Prof. Samorn, retired from AIT in 2002 after a highly accomplished three-decade academic career.

Thai Resources and Environmental Management Institute (TREMI) is a private non - profit organization offer their services both in fundamentals appropriated to the interdisciplinary nature of energy and environmental problems. They have an objective to simulate technology transfer activities with collaboration to academic and policy makers for better practice for environmental, natural resources and renewable energy management, to beneficial of the people and enhance the Thai's quality of life.

Students taking course ED78.08, ED78.10 are expected to attend. Other interested people are most welcome.

Dr. Thammarat Koottatep
EEM / SERD