

TITLE:	Professional Training Program on Energy for Sustainable Development
BACKGROUND:	This two weeks customized training program on Energy for Sustainable Development is prepared for the professionals of the Directorate General of Personnel Administration (DGPA), Government of Taiwan. The course is designed for the technical professionals engaged in the Ministry of Energy, Taiwan, aimed in enhancing the technical skills of the professionals in energy sector. Directorate General of Personnel Administration (DGPA) The Directorate – General of Personnel Administration (DGPA), Executive Yuan, is one of the main government organizations in Taiwan, responsible for overall administration and management of government personnel and civil service function at the state level. DGPA is mandated to prepare civil servants to be able to work in the fast changing political and economic environment. The government also gives concerns on effectiveness and efficiency on citizen service delivery which can build trust and credibility of the service system. It is equally important that DGPA has a pool of highly motivated and ethical civil servants who can be influential for public sector development in the near future.
OBJECTIVE:	The principal aim of this program is to enhance participants’ skills on energy for sustainable development including; energy security and sustainable development, energy technology and industrial development, energy management and energy efficiency, and low-carbon policy and related regulations. Participants will be able to compare the prevailing good practices in the energy sector sites to be visited with those of the prevailing practices in Taiwan.
TIMING:	The training program will be held during 16 – 27 November 2015 (excluding travel time)
VENUE:	AIT (16-25 November 2015) Singapore (25-27 November 2015)
DONOR:	Directorate General of Personnel Administration (DGPA)
PARTICIPANTS:	The participants for this course will be selected by the Directorate General of Personnel Administration (DGPA), Government of Taiwan. There will be 25 participants. The Director General, Bureau of Energy, Ministry of Economic Affairs will accompany as the team leader.
COURSE DIRECTOR:	Mr. Fazle Karim
COURSE COORDINATOR:	Ms. Mahbooba/Mr. Tharakorn
CONTACT	Mr. Fazle Karim Head, Information Technology & Engineering AIT Extension, Asian Institute of Technology Email: fazlekarimait@gmail.com karim@ait.asia

