

Asian Institute of Technology

Date: Saturday, 14th January 2017

Venue: Redemptorist Center Pattaya

The community members of the Asian Institute of Technology (AIT) are invited to visit the Redemptorist Center Pattaya and join in its support¹ for The Father Ray Foundation that takes care of 850 children and people with disabilities.

Lightening Small Candles Program

“Share with the Children - National Children's Day 2017”

- | | |
|------------------|--|
| 7:00 am | Leave AIT by van (snack box will be provided) |
| 10:00 am | Arrival at Redemptorist Center, Pattaya |
| 10:10 - 11:00 am | Entertaining activities for/with the children lead by OHRS |
| 11:00 - 12:30 pm | AIT hosts Lunch for the children |
| 13:00 pm | Leave the Redemptorist Center, Pattaya to Sattahip |
| 13:30-14:30 pm | Buffet lunch at Sattahip Naval Base |
| 14:30 pm | Short tour visit at Krom Luang Chumporn Hill and the Sea Turtles Patronage Center, Sattahip Naval Base |
| 16:00 pm | Leave Sattahip for AIT |
| 19:00 pm | Arrival at AIT |

¹ AIT community members are also invited to donate unused items suitable for school children at the secondary level (such as bags, clothes, uniforms, shoes, books, etc.). Monetary donations are also welcome for the purchase of these items.